

Happiness...

Effective marketing - grow opportunities & create more happy moments

Skilled marketing support for your practice

From promoting puppy packs to the benefits of regular dental checks

Hi, I'm Tim and I'd like to support your marketing efforts so that you can create more moments of happiness for pets and their owners.

I'm a freelance marketer, graphic designer and coder with 20+ years experience in traditional and digital marketing campaigns that raise awareness and turn enquiries into customers. As part of an intro to my business, I'd like to offer you some super deals on marketing products that you could use to help grow your practice. Need something else? Visit my website to see what I can do for you...
